25X1A

1. On 27 August 1950 the Anklam (N 54/U 99) airfield was not occupied. The field was being used for parachute jumping several days each week. Two biplanes, a major and a captain wearing blue-gold epaulets, 16 E1 and [REDACTED] took part in the practice. * All parachutists wore parachute jump suits. One man jumped from each biplane, the average time of descent being 3 minutes. After the exercise the officers left in the biplanes toward the north, and the E1 left on the truck toward Alten-Treptow (N 54/U 67).

2. It was learned from the Anklam Labor Office that all unemployed persons in the district were to be drafted to recondition the airfield. **

* [REDACTED] Comment. Parachute jumps were reported [REDACTED] on 27 July 1950, but have not been confirmed by other sources. [REDACTED] It is not known

25X1A to which unit the aircraft and parachutist are assigned. They may be assigned to the Peenemuende airfield although the note [REDACTED]

25X1A [REDACTED] in Terneuchen-Strauberg.

 [REDACTED] Comment. Reconditioning work at the field has not been confirmed by other sources.
